

Swedish Environmental Protection Agency and Green Deals

Stockholm
18 September 2018

Sebastian Dahlgren Axelsson

A committed, coordinating force for Sweden's environmental efforts

About our remit and organisation

Environmental efforts in Sweden, the EU, and internationally

2020

The national environmental objectives are the common platform for Sweden's environmental efforts.

2030

Through the UN, world leaders have committed to 17 global sustainable development goals.

Green deals in a Swedish context

Actions in collaboration with others

Existing policy and control measures

Developing new measures and policy

Implementing national/international environmental regulations

Supervisory guidance to regional and local authorities

Giving permit to environmentally hazardous activities

Conclusions

Fast line to permits ??

Commitments to

- public procurement
- reasearch and innovation
- Adaption of national and international legislation
- test new measures and adapt existing measures

